

Congratulations to Alumna Meisha Ross Porter, M.S. '03, H.D. '20 On Being Named New York City's Schools Chancellor

Meisha Ross Porter, M.S. '03, H.D. '20 was named the first black woman to lead the nation's largest public school district. Ross Porter previously served as Bronx Executive Superintendent where she was deeply invested in developing school leaders' equity lens and building collaborative practices across schools. Prior to taking the helm as the Bronx Executive Superintendent Ross Porter served as Superintendent for Community School District #11 and Principal of The Bronx School for Law, Government and Justice. Ross Porter received the 2019 Mercy Alumni Achievement Award and was Mercy's School of Education 2020 Commencement Speaker and Honorary Degree Recipient.

MERCY RECOGNIZES Alumni Achievement

On February 4, at the Virtual Alumni Achievement Awards, Mercy honored the following five distinguished alumni who work diligently to deepen and strengthen our connection in the community and inducted them into the Mercy College Alumni Hall of Fame, Class of 2021.

Camele Clarke-Barrett '06, M.B.A. '09, Finance Lead, Digital Business, Red Hat Marketplace Revenue, IBM Cognitive Applications

Sheila A. Enriquez '96, CPA, JD, CFF, CVA Managing Partner & CEO, Briggs & Veselka Co.

Mary Fox-Alter '78, Superintendent, Pleasantville Union Free School District

Dr. Rosa Gonzalez '69, Obstetrician/ Gynecologist, Office of Rosa Gonzalez, MD

Christopher McNerney '98, Chief of Police, Greenburgh, NY

The event raised funds for the Alumni Legacy Scholarship Fund which supports children of alumni to attend Mercy.

Camele
Clarke-Barrett '06,
M.B.A. '09

Sheila A.
Enriquez '96

Mary
Fox-Alter '78

Dr. Rosa
Gonzalez '69

Christopher
McNerney '98