Mercy University is celebrating its 75th anniversary this year. Founded by the Sisters of Mercy in 1950, Mercy College became a four-year college offering programs leading to the baccalaureate degree in 1961. Click here to read more about Mercy University's History.

Today, Mercy University serves more than 9,000 students across three campuses (Westchester, the Bronx and Manhattan) and online. It offers more than 100 undergraduate and graduate degree programs and certificate programs within six schools: Business, Education, Health and Natural Sciences, Liberal Arts, Nursing and Social and Behavioral Sciences. Mercy also provides non-credit courses and certificates for adult learners looking to acquire new skills. Click here for more information about Mercy's curriculum and academics.

Fifty-seven students are participating this year in Catalyst, a Mercy pilot program for undergraduates on the Bronx campus. To ensure that students can focus on their education, Catalyst offers full tuition, plus transportation and meals while on campus, laptops and hot spots. Support services also include tutoring, career preparation internships and other enrichment opportunities. Students can choose from three areas of study: business, education or social work.
